SOUTH HARPSWELL

Sidney H. Toothaker and family of Brunswick, Elijah Estes and family of Chebeague, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas and Miss Hattie Estes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stover B. Estes, Sunday. There were four generations present, children, grandchildren and great-grand-children, also Mrs. Mary Foss of Freeport; John and Stephen Curit of Yarmouth and George Carville of Lewiston, thirty altogether. A pleasant day was passed by all.

Proprietor Harry Lightfoot has several boarders at the Ocean View House.

Dr. Fuller of Lewiston is in town. Dr. Fred D. Lambert of Tufts College is occupying Mrs. Rutter's cottage.

These are happy days for Rear Admiral Peary, and the gallant explorer deserves all the honors that are being accorded him.

Leon B. Merriman is visiting his family here.

Miss Abbie Stover was able to leave the hospital at Portland the first of the week. The operation for appendicitis was successful.

Miss Olive M. Bibber will return to Bailey Island next week to pass the summer with Mrs. E. E. Sinnett.

EAST HARPSWELL

On Tuesday evening the first shower with much thunder and lightning. The rain was very welcome as it is getting very dry and everything is crying for rain.

The old Purington House at Cundy's Harbor was burned, and it is supposed, was struck by lightning. No one has occupied the house since Woodbury Purington left it to go to Fagus.

A few people are at Oakledge and the prospect is not very brilliant. The last few warm days will help to start the summer visitors for the beautiful shores of Maine.

Sidney Holbrook and family were at his father's, at East Harpswell on Sunday.

W. Stevens from Orr's Island and four lady friends came to Mr. Holbrook's last Friday by auto.

HARPSWELL CENTER

Capt. Stephen D. Johnson has been afflicted with German measles the past week.

Samuel Johnson, of North Harpswell is assisting William Randall in the work on S. V. Gibson's cottage. Mr. Gibson and his family of New York will occupy their cottage this summer.

Cyrus K. Miller is passing the summer at Capt. S. D. Johnson's residence.

bride were much enjoyed. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter Miss Kilbride. It was arranged to hold the next meeting the following Wednesday.

HOUSE BURNED AT CUNDY'S

During a heavy thunder shower late Monday night, the old one-story house known as the Woodbury Purington house and owned by Mary P. and Samuel Smith, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. This house is one of the landmarks of Cundy's Harbor, and more than 150 years old. It had not been occupied for some time, but contained a small amount of furniture. The loss is about $400. There was no insurance.
