Moments from the past

The Harris children (top) posed in front of Harris' Store, Cundy's Harbor, in this picture the date of which is unknown. According to information on the back of the photograph, Harm Thompson was handling the buggy team. The Brunswick Town Hall was decked out for the town's sesquicentennial on June 13, 1889 when a representative of J.C. Higgins & Son photo studio of Bath made the bottom picture. If you know of additional details about either photograph or the people in them please write to: Then and Now, The Times Record, P.O. Box 10, Brunswick, Maine 04011-0010. (Top photo from the collection of Dorothy Bradley of Brunswick)
